Pizza on Main Celebrates 3rd Anniversary Week

Morrisville, Vermont: Pizza on Main is celebrating their third year by holding an annual event called Anniversary Week that takes place from Wednesday, February 7th thru Sunday February 11th. Pizza on Main celebrates this time of year with the community by offering phenomenal specials along with new menu items and free give-aways including ski passes.

Building relationships by serving high quality fresh food with super friendly service has earned some humbling accolades regarding where you can find the best Pizza in Vermont.

Kristin Grimes of OnlyinYourState.com wrote an article in August of 2017, “The Little-Hole-In-the-Wall That Serves the Best Pizza In Vermont”. Read Kristin's Article Here

At the end of Pizza On Main’s first-year food editor of Seven Days, Hannah Palmer Egan, wrote an article in December 2015, “2015's Highs and Lows in Vermont Food” where she noted, “But the best pizzeria in the state opened early last spring – in Morrisville.” Read Hannah's Article Here

What are Pizza on Main customers saying? Read these reviews, “I have eaten pizza in the North End of Boston, in Little Italy in NYC, in many countries in Europe and all over the USA. I have not ever eaten better pizza anywhere-- I mean anywhere, than I ate yesterday at Pizza on Main. Fantastic. No, not fantastic for a little town in Vermont...fantastic period. I will be back many times over the next four years.”

Must try Nana’s meatballs, one customer raved, “Don’t forget to order the “Nanas Meatballs”!! (Hands down, BEST meatballs EVER!!!) Light, fluffy and FULL of awesomeness!!!”

Whether you want a quick bite, sit-down meal, delivery, or catering, Pizza on Main accommodates to all. Check out these delicious offerings
